Dear Dr. Lederberg:

I am very sorry for the delay in answering your letter. We have had the very sad experience here at the office. Mr. Vanderlyn passed away very suddenly while he was in Florida.

We have the section of Biochemical, Biophysical, and Physiological Apparatus and Methods opened for indexing and also the sections of Cytology, General Biology, Education, and Evolution. If you and your wife are interested in any or all of these sections we shall send you a sample of this indexing that you may follow. We shall appreciate any help that you may be able to give us.

Sincerely,

Margaret Sanaher
